

MamaDudu Khumalo

Research Assistant
Umphilo waManzi
Durban, South Africa

Community Scholar
Centre for Civil Society (CCS)
University of KwaZulu Natal

Email: Khumalod@ukzn.ac.za

Mama Dudu is a community activist working mostly with rural and township organizations. She has worked with the South African Municipal Union (SAMWU) as an organizer and as a coordinator for Water and Sanitation issues in KwaZulu Natal province.

She currently works as a CCS Community Scholar and in various other water research consultancies. She is also working with Umphilo waManzi as a research assistant for the CCAA project and as a researcher on the social implications of urine-diversion toilets in eThekweni Municipality.

She has authored water articles for Agenda and The Mercury, and campaigned on behalf of people displaced by the Inanda Dam. Mama Dudu lives to Inanda Dam, in a town called Mzinyathi.